Company Information:

Company Name: The Pacific Coast House

Center Quote: We are an all inclusive, upscale sober living house located in beautiful Dana Point, California. We cater to mature individuals who are serious about establishing their sober foundation, and are looking for a safe, confidential, and elegant retreat in which to spend their early recovery. The Pacific Coast House is a beautifully decorated six bedroom residence featuring vaulted ceilings, hand crafted African and Asian accents, magnificent oak sleigh beds, along with plush Serta mattresses. We have two lovely private bedrooms, and three wonderful semi-private rooms. Clients at PCH enjoy 1-mile proximity to the beach, wireless Internet, as well as Plasma HD TV's in every room. In addition, residents will have access to the lavish Harbor Health Club and Spa, weekly 12 step groups, maid service, private backyard spa & barbecue, private yoga classes, transportation to/from morning meetings, and more. Furthermore, residents can opt to participate in private counsel by an experienced local Marriage and Family Therapist, sober 12 years himself, to explore and expand their self-awareness.

Personal Information:

About Me: The Pacific Coast House, or PCH, provides a first class, clean environment for which recovering alcoholics can live during early sobriety. Guests will enjoy a luxurious home, steps from the beach, in beautiful Dana Point, California. The town of Dana Point will offer guests the opportunity to Surf, Shop, Hike, Mountain Bike, and much more. PCH is the only upscale sober living house in Dana Point. As far as housing conditions, location, amenities, and services, PCH is second to none. PCH attracts professional adults who before dismissed the idea of a sober living home because of the conditions found in other homes. PCH's monthly cost will include an amazing home in one of the most beautiful towns in America, an energetically warm motif of furnishings, a wonderful backyard with a private spa, Plasma HD TV's, high speed cable internet, yoga classes, Psychological counsel, utilities, weekly barbecues, maid service, parking, and most importantly, a sober, positive environment. Frank Renfro, owner, is also the house manager in the house. He maintains a clean and sober environment by way of random Urine Analysis Test. Frank is in close contact with all clients at all times in order to best facilitate their needs and demands. He constantly strives to make each clients stay at PCH as beneficial as possible in order for them to begin the rest of their new lives!
